

VIDEO CD PLAYER PATENT LICENSE AGREEMENT

This Agreement is entered into this _____ day of _____, 2007 by and between

KONINKLIJKE PHILIPS ELECTRONICS N.V., having its registered office in Eindhoven, The Netherlands, (hereinafter referred to as "Philips")

[_____], having its registered office in [_____]
(hereinafter referred to as "Licensee").

WHEREAS, the Philips' group of companies has for many years been engaged in research and development of systems, in which signals encoded in digital form and stored on a disc are read and reproduced by means of devices using an optical read-out beam, and has acquired valuable know-how and expertise therein;

WHEREAS, one of the achievements of such research and development efforts has been a revolutionary high-fidelity sound storage and reproduction system, of which the specifications have been further defined in a joint research and development co-operation with Sony Corporation ("Sony") and which has been presented under the name "Compact Disc Digital Audio System" (CD-Audio System);

WHEREAS, on the basis of the CD-Audio System Philips and Sony have developed a further system, which has been presented under the name "Compact Disc Data System" (CD-ROM System) (the CD-Audio System and the CD-ROM System are collectively referred to as "the CD Systems");

WHEREAS, Philips and Sony each own certain patents relating to the CD Systems;

WHEREAS, Philips, France Télécom R&D ("France Télécom") and Institut für Rundfunktechnik GmbH ("IRT") have co-operated in the field of subband-coding for digitally encoding and decoding audio signals and have developed valuable technologies in this field;

WHEREAS, Philips, France Télécom and IRT own certain patents in the field of subband-coding for digitally encoding and decoding audio signals;

WHEREAS, on the basis of the CD Systems, Philips, Sony, Matsushita Electric Industrial Co. Ltd. ("MEI") and Victor Company of Japan, Ltd. ("JVC") have defined an additional CD System which has been presented under the name "Video CD System" (as hereinafter defined);

WHEREAS, Philips, Sony, MEI and JVC each own certain patents relating to the Video CD System;

WHEREAS, Philips has been authorized by Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom and IRT to grant licenses under certain patents relating to the Video CD System, including the subband-coding and decoding technology, which are owned and controlled by Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom and IRT and their respective Associated Companies (as hereinafter defined), as well as under such patents relating to the Video CD System, including the subband-coding and decoding technology, which are jointly owned by Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom and/or IRT;

WHEREAS, Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom and IRT have each retained their rights to license their respective patents separately and to give non-assertion undertakings with regard to jointly owned patents, whether within or outside the standard specifications of the Video CD System, so that interested manufacturers may opt to take out separate licenses under the relevant patents of each of Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom and IRT, instead of a combined license;

WHEREAS, Licensee has requested from Philips a license under the relevant patents of Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom and IRT relating to Video CD Players (as hereinafter defined) and wishes such Video CD Players to be compatible with Video CD Discs (as hereinafter defined) conforming to the Video CD Standard Specifications (as hereinafter defined);

WHEREAS, Philips is willing to grant Licensee a license under the relevant patents and to make available certain basic information relating to the Video CD System, on the conditions set forth herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual obligations and covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto have agreed as follows:

1. Definitions

The following terms used in this Agreement shall have the respective meanings ascribed thereto below:

- 1.1 “Disc” shall mean a non-recordable reflective disc-shaped information carrier comprising any kind of information including, but not limited to, audio, video, text and/or data-related information, which is irreversibly stored in a layer during and as an integral part of the manufacturing process of the disc in a form which is optically readable by playback devices using a laser-beam.

A Video CD Player is, in addition to reproducing information stored on a Video CD Disc, capable of reproducing information stored on a CD-Audio Disc.
- 1.11 “Video CD System” shall mean the Video Compact Disc System which is capable of storing and reproducing audio and video signals in digital form from Video CD Discs, making use of video compression and decompression technology and subband-coding and subband-decoding technology.

- 1.14 “Licensed Patents” shall mean any one or more of the essential patents for the manufacture and/or sale of Video CD Players, as listed in Annex A.

From said Annex the expiration dates of the relevant patents can be derived, on a country-by-country basis.

The term “essential” as used in relation to patents in this Agreement shall refer to patents, the use of which is necessary (either directly or as a practical matter) for compliance with the Video CD Standard Specifications.

Philips commissions an independent patent expert to review the European, Japanese and US patents listed as essential in Annex A in order to confirm the essentiality of such patents. In the event that such independent patent expert would find that any of the patents does not qualify as essential as defined in this Agreement, Philips will delete such patent (as well as the equivalent corresponding patents) from Annex A and such patent will be put on a list of non-essential patents. Notwithstanding such deletion, Licensee shall retain the right to continue the use of such deleted patent(s) in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, without any additional payment, unless Licensee explicitly notifies Philips in writing of its decision to waive such right.

In the event that Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom or IRT (or any of their respective Associated Companies) would have additional patents relevant to Video CD Players (other than patents acquired from third parties after the date of May 1, 1995) in their respective patent portfolios which are essential to the manufacture, sale or other disposal of Video CD Players and which have a filing date or are entitled to a priority date prior to May 1, 1995, but which have not been listed as essential patents in Annex A hereto, Philips will notify Licensee accordingly and such additional patents will be added to the Licensed Patents and such addition shall not affect the provisions of this Agreement. Any patents as may be added as essential patents to Annex A hereto, will similarly be subject to the review by the independent patent expert in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

The patent lists provided to Licensee upon execution of this Agreement are subject to change in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. With regard to the rights granted to Licensee hereunder, the patent lists published by Philips on its website (www.ip.philips.com) or otherwise communicated by Philips to Licensee after the date of execution hereof shall prevail over the lists provided to Licensee upon the execution of this Agreement.

- 1.15 “Associated Company” shall mean any one or more business entities (1) owned or controlled by Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom, IRT or Licensee, (2) owning or controlling Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom, IRT or Licensee, or (3) owned or controlled by the business entity owning or controlling Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom, IRT or Licensee at the material time. For the purposes of this definition a business entity shall be deemed to own and/or to control another business entity if more than 50% (fifty per cent) of the voting stock of the latter business entity, ordinarily entitled to vote in the election of directors, (or, if there is no such stock, more than 50% (fifty per cent) of the ownership of or control in the latter business entity) is held by the owning and/or controlling business entity.

- 2.2 Philips, also on behalf of Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom and IRT, further agrees, for as long as this Agreement is in force and effect and Licensee is in full compliance with its obligations under this Agreement, to grant Licensee upon Licensee's request, a non-exclusive, non-transferable license, either by means of a sub-license arrangement or by means of individual licenses from Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom and/or IRT respectively, on reasonable, non-discriminatory conditions, to manufacture Licensed Products in the Territory and to sell or otherwise dispose of Licensed Products so manufactured in all countries of the world, under any patents not yet licensed hereunder and which are essential to the manufacture, sale or other disposal of Licensed Products, for which Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom, IRT and/or their respective Associated Companies may hereafter acquire from third parties the right to grant licenses. It is acknowledged and agreed that in respect of the patents as may be licensed pursuant to this Clause 2.2, additional royalties may have to be paid over and above the royalties specified in Clause 5.2.
- 2.3 Philips, also on behalf of Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom and IRT, further agrees, for as long as this Agreement is in force and effect and Licensee is in full compliance with its obligations under this Agreement, to grant Licensee upon Licensee's request as well as to those of Licensee's Associated Companies who so request, a non-exclusive, non-transferable license, on reasonable, non-discriminatory conditions either by means of a sub-license arrangement or by means of individual licenses from Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom and/or IRT respectively, to manufacture Video CD Discs and to sell or otherwise dispose of such Video CD Discs so manufactured in all countries of the world under any and all present and future patents essential to the manufacture, sale or other disposal of such Video CD Discs, for which Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom, IRT and/or their respective Associated Companies have or may hereafter acquire the right to grant licenses.
- 2.4 In consideration of the undertakings set forth in Clauses 2.1, 2.2 and 2.3 and similar undertakings by third party licensees of Philips or any of its Associated Companies and without prejudice to the provisions of Clause 11, Licensee agrees to grant to Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom, IRT and their respective Associated Companies and to other third parties who have entered or will enter into a license agreement with Philips concerning Video CD Players, non-exclusive, non-transferable licenses, on reasonable, non-discriminatory conditions comparable to those set forth herein, to manufacture, sell or otherwise dispose of Video CD Players, under any and all present and future patents, for which Licensee or its Associated Companies have or may hereafter acquire the right to grant licenses and which are essential to the manufacture, sale or other disposal of Video CD Players and which patents were first filed or are entitled to a priority date in any country of the world prior to the date of termination of this Agreement. The duration of such licenses shall be a period ending at the expiration date of the last to expire patent of Licensee or the relevant Associated Company of Licensee, essential to Video CD Players.

For the avoidance of doubt, the undertaking set out in this Clause 2.4 shall only apply to those companies which accept or have accepted a similar undertaking as given by Licensee in this Clause 2.4.

- 2.5 In addition, in consideration of the undertakings set forth in Clauses 2.1, 2.2 and 2.3 and similar undertakings by third party licensees of Philips or any of its Associated Companies and without prejudice to the provisions of Clause 11, Licensee agrees to grant to Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom, IRT and their respective Associated Companies and to other third parties who have entered or will enter into a license agreement with Philips concerning Video CD Discs, non-exclusive, non-transferable licenses on reasonable, non-discriminatory conditions, to manufacture, sell or otherwise dispose of Video CD Discs, under any and all present and future patents for which Licensee or its Associated Companies have or may hereafter acquire the right to grant licenses and which are essential to the manufacture, sale or other disposal of Video CD Discs and which patents were first filed or are entitled to a priority date in any country of the world prior to the date of termination of this Agreement. The duration of such licenses shall be a period ending at the expiration date of the last to expire patent of Licensee or the relevant Associated Company of Licensee, essential to Video CD Discs. For the avoidance of doubt, the undertaking set out in this Clause 2.5 shall only apply to those companies which accept or have accepted a similar undertaking as given by Licensee in this Clause 2.5.
- 2.6 Philips undertakes that it will offer, at the request of any of Licensee's Associated Companies to any such Associated Company, a non-exclusive and non-transferable license under the Licensed Patents on reasonable and non-discriminatory conditions comparable to those set forth herein, to manufacture, sell or otherwise dispose of Video CD Players.
- 2.7 IT IS EXPRESSLY ACKNOWLEDGED AND AGREED THAT:
- (I) THE LICENSES AND LICENSE UNDERTAKINGS HEREIN CONTAINED WITH RESPECT TO THE MANUFACTURE OF LICENSED PRODUCTS DO NOT EXTEND TO THE MANUFACTURE OF COMPONENTS FOR LICENSED PRODUCTS (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO SEMICONDUCTOR DEVICES, INTEGRATED CIRCUITS, LASERS, MOTORS AND LENSES), EXCEPT FOR CIRCUITRY AND/OR SYSTEM ASPECTS SPECIFIC TO THE VIDEO CD SYSTEM (AND SIMILAR OPTICAL READ-OUT SYSTEMS), NOR DO THE LICENSE UNDERTAKINGS WITH RESPECT TO THE MANUFACTURE OF DISCS EXTEND TO MASTER RECORDING MACHINES, EQUIPMENT OR METHODS FOR THE REPLICATION OF DISCS, THE MANUFACTURE OF MATERIALS OR REPRODUCTION RIGHTS FOR INFORMATION SUCH AS AUDIO, VIDEO, TEXT AND/OR DATA-RELATED INFORMATION, CONTAINED ON DISCS TO BE PLAYED BACK ON A LICENSED PRODUCT; AND
 - (II) THE RIGHTS AND LICENSES GRANTED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT DO NOT EXTEND TO ANY COMBINATION OF ONE OR MORE LICENSED PRODUCTS OR DISCS WITH ANY OTHER ELEMENTS, PRODUCTS, SYSTEMS, EQUIPMENT OR SOFTWARE OTHER THAN THE COMBINATION OF A LICENSED PRODUCT AND A VIDEO CD DISC OR A CD-AUDIO DISC.

3. Standard Specifications, Technical Information and Support

- 3.1 Upon receipt of the payment provided for in Clause 5.1 and the payment provided for in Clause 5.13, Philips shall make available to Licensee for use by Licensee in accordance with the provisions hereof, a copy of the then current version of the Video CD Standard Specifications and the CD Standard Specifications, together with such other information and support as Philips considers necessary for the interpretation and/or the correct application of the Video CD Standard Specifications.
- 3.2 Licensee shall be notified in writing of any addition or modification to the Video CD Standard Specifications and the CD Standard Specifications and shall be provided with relevant information in connection therewith.
- 3.3 Philips and Licensee undertake to keep each other generally informed of developments or initiatives which may have an impact on the Video CD Standard Specifications and the CD Standard Specifications.

4. Procurement from other Licensed Manufacturers

- 4.1 The rights granted to Licensee pursuant to Clause 2 and the right to use the information pursuant to Clause 3, include the right for Licensee to have third parties manufacture for Licensee's use and account, in accordance with the provisions hereof, such components as Licensee requires in connection with the manufacture of Licensed Products. Licensee shall ensure that such third parties use the information obtained by Licensee pursuant to Article 3 only for the manufacture of such components for Licensed Products ordered by Licensee and further that such third party supplier has agreed in writing to comply with the confidentiality obligations of Clause 8 with respect to the use of the information supplied by Philips pursuant to Clause 3. Licensee shall notify Philips of the name of such third party supplier(s).
- 4.2 The rights granted to Licensee pursuant to Clause 2 and the right to use the information pursuant to Clause 3, include the right for Licensee to have Licensed Products made for it by third party manufacturers, duly licensed by Philips under an agreement similar to this Agreement, provided that Licensee will properly identify such third party manufacturer in the Royalty Reporting Forms to be submitted to Philips hereunder, together with the quantities of Licensed Products so purchased. Conversely, Licensee shall refrain from purchasing or selling Video CD Players manufactured by any third party not licensed by Philips, where such purchase or sale would constitute an act of infringement of any of the Licensed Patents.

5. Royalties, Reports and Payments

- 5.1 In consideration of the rights granted by Philips and the information to be provided by Philips hereunder, Licensee shall, upon execution of this Agreement, make a non-refundable, non-recoupable payment of US$ 25,000 (twenty-five thousand US Dollars) to Philips.

- 5.2 In further consideration of the rights granted hereunder by Philips to Licensee, Licensee shall pay to Philips a royalty for each Video CD Player sold or otherwise disposed of by Licensee, any of Licensee's Associated Companies or an agent of Licensee, in any country where at least one of the Licensed Patents relating to Video CD Players exists.

This royalty shall amount to 2.5% (two and a half per cent) of the Net Selling Price (as hereinafter defined) of each Video CD Player or US$ 5.00 (five US Dollars), whichever amount is higher, for each Video CD Player sold before July 1, 2003.

This royalty shall amount to US$ 1.25 (one US Dollar and twenty-five US Dollar cents) for each Video CD Player sold on or after July 1, 2003.

With respect to Video CD Players sold on or after July 1, 2003, provided that Licensee is in full compliance with its obligations under this Agreement, Licensee may apply a royalty rate of US$ 0.75 (three quarters of a US Dollar) for each Video CD Player.

In the event that Licensee fails to comply at any time with any of its obligations under this Agreement, the royalty rate of US$ 1.25 (one US Dollar and twenty-five US Dollar cents) shall apply to Licensee's manufacture and sale of Video CD Players instead of the royalty rate of US$ 0.75 (three quarters of a US Dollar), with immediate effect from the first day of the reporting period to which the occurrence of non-compliance relates until such moment that Philips confirms in writing to Licensee that Licensee's non-compliance has been remedied in full.

A Video CD Player shall be considered sold when invoiced or, if not invoiced, when delivered to a party other than Licensee.

For the avoidance of doubt, Philips confirms that it shall not assert any of the Licensed Patents against Licensee, nor against any of Licensee's customers or subsequent buyers of Video CD Players manufactured and sold by Licensee, prior to the day on which such Video CD Players are to be reported pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, nor, provided that such Video CD Players have been duly reported in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, prior to the day when payment of royalties in respect of Video CD Players manufactured and sold by Licensee is due in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

No royalties shall be payable for Video CD Players purchased by Licensee on a "have made" basis in accordance with Clause 4 from third party manufacturers, duly licensed by Philips, provided that Licensee can demonstrate to Philips' satisfaction, that such third party manufacturer has paid to Philips the royalties due in respect of such Video CD Players.

For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that the manufacture by Licensee of Video CD Players within the Territory would not infringe any of the Licensed Patents, Licensee shall have no obligation to report and pay royalties in respect of Video CD Players manufactured within the Territory and which are sold for final use within the Territory or imported (either by Licensee or by a third party) into a country where no Licensed Patents exist, for final use in such country.

- 5.3 For the purpose of this Agreement, "Net Selling Price" shall mean the invoice price for the Video CD Player sold by Licensee to any third party on an arm's length basis during the term of this Agreement. Such price shall be exclusive of normal discounts actually granted, insurance fees, packing and transportation charges as invoiced to customers, and duties and sales taxes actually incurred and paid by Licensee in connection with the supply of such Video CD Player. In respect of sales by Licensee other than on an arm's length basis to or for resale by customers, the Net Selling Price shall be the average Net Selling Price of the preceding three months as defined above for similar Video CD Players sold on an arm's length basis to third party customers over the preceding three months.

5.4 Within 30 days following 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 31 December of each year during the term of this Agreement, Licensee shall submit to Philips (even in the event that no sales have been made) a Royalty Reporting Form submitted by a duly authorized officer on behalf of Licensee, in the manner as provided for on www.ip.philips.com setting forth with respect to the preceding quarterly period:

- (1) the quantities of Video CD Players manufactured by Licensee;
- (2) the quantities of Video CD Players purchased from other licensed manufacturers in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4, specified per such third party manufacturer who shall be named in the Royalty Reporting Form;
- (3) on a per-country basis:
 - (a) the quantities of Video CD Players sold or otherwise disposed of, specifying the identity of the buyers and the trademarks used on or in connection with the Video CD Players;
 - (b) where applicable, the Net Selling Price of Video CD Players sold or otherwise disposed of, expressed in the currency as used in the transaction(s);
 - (c) the quantities of Video CD Players sold to other manufacturers, duly licensed by Philips, specifying the identity of such other manufacturers and the trademarks used on or in connection with the Video CD Players;
- (4) a computation of the royalties due under this Agreement.

Licensee shall pay the royalties due to Philips within 30 days after the end of each quarterly period in US Dollars to a bank account, as specified by Philips.

5.5 In the event that Licensee fails to submit to Philips a Royalty Reporting Form for any royalty reporting period within 30 days from the end of the relevant reporting period in accordance with the provisions of Clause 5.4, Licensee shall be obliged to pay to Philips within 30 days after the end of the relevant quarterly period for which the Royalty Reporting Form was not submitted, an estimated royalty (hereinafter referred to as an "Advance"), being an amount equal to the highest amount of royalties due for any royalty reporting period over the preceding eight royalty reporting periods (or over all preceding royalty reporting periods if fewer than eight). Such payment shall be treated as a non-refundable advance, primarily against the royalties and interest for the relevant royalty reporting period and then, if any sum remains, against any future royalties or other payments payable by Licensee hereunder. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that any Advance shall not be due by way of penalty, but that such payment shall constitute a non-refundable advance as aforesaid. For the avoidance of doubt, such payment shall be payable without any further notice or action by Philips, legal or otherwise, and shall take effect by virtue of the failure to submit a Royalty Reporting Form on time. The payment by Licensee of an Advance shall not affect Licensee's obligation to submit a Royalty Reporting Form and shall be without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of Philips, including, without limitation, Philips' right to charge 2% (two per cent) interest per month on overdue payments (including overdue payments of the Advance), and Philips' right to terminate this Agreement in accordance with its provisions. The Advance will not be set off against other sums due to Philips until a Royalty Reporting Form has been submitted in respect of the relevant royalty reporting period. In respect of any royalty reporting period for which an Advance has been paid and the Royalty Reporting Form subsequently submitted, Philips will first set off against the Advance all royalties and interest due for that period. Any remaining sum from the Advance will be set off against further royalty, interest or Advance payments due to Philips hereunder (if any).

- 5.6 Licensee shall submit to Philips, once per calendar year, an audit statement by its external auditors, who shall be certified public auditors as specified in the Audit Guidelines attached hereto as Annex B2, confirming that the quarterly Royalty Reporting Forms as submitted by Licensee to Philips for the last four quarterly periods, are true, complete and accurate in every respect. Such statement must meet the requirements as specified in the Audit Guidelines and shall be submitted to Philips within 90 days following the end of Licensee's financial year. The correctness of this audit statement may be verified by Philips by means of a work paper review, conducted by one of the certified public auditors selected by Philips. Licensee shall procure that its auditors provide full cooperation with said work paper review. Notwithstanding this audit statement, Philips reserves the right to inspect the books and records of Licensee from time to time in accordance with Clause 5.11.
- 5.7 Within 30 days following the expiration or termination of this Agreement, Licensee shall submit to Philips a certified report on the number of Video CD Players in stock at the time of expiration or termination of this Agreement. Royalties, calculated in accordance with Clause 5.2 and Clause 5.13, shall be due and payable for all Video CD Players manufactured prior to, but remaining in stock with Licensee on the date of expiration or termination of this Agreement and shall be calculated on the basis of the Fair Market Value (as hereinafter defined) of each such Video CD Player remaining in stock. For each such Video CD Player still in stock, "Fair Market Value" shall, for the purpose of this Agreement, mean the average Net Selling Price of the Video CD Players which are identical or substantially similar to such Video CD Players still in stock, sold during the 3 months prior to the expiration or termination of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, this Clause 5.7 shall be without prejudice to the provisions of Clause 11.6.
- 5.8 Any payment under this Agreement which is not made on the date(s) specified herein, shall accrue interest at the rate of 2% (two per cent) per month (or part thereof) or the maximum amount permitted by law, whichever is lower.
- 5.9 All payments to Philips under this Agreement shall be made by transfer in US Dollar or in such other currency, convertible in the sense of Articles VIII and XIX of the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund, as designated by Philips. The rate of exchange for converting the currency (if other than US Dollar) of the Territory shall be the telegraphic transfer selling rate of the designated currency as officially quoted in the Territory by the officially authorized foreign exchange bank for payment of currency transactions on the day that the amount is due and payable.

- 5.10 All costs, stamp duties, taxes and other similar levies arising from or in connection with the conclusion of this Agreement shall be borne by Licensee. In the event that the government of a country imposes any taxes on payments by Licensee to Philips hereunder and requires Licensee to withhold such tax from such payments, Licensee may deduct such tax from such payments. In such event, Licensee shall promptly provide Philips with tax receipts issued by the relevant tax authorities so as to enable Philips to support a claim for credit against income taxes which may be payable by Philips and/or its Associated Companies in The Netherlands and to enable Philips to document, if necessary, its compliance with tax obligations in any jurisdiction outside The Netherlands.
- 5.11 In order that the Royalty Reporting Forms provided for in this Clause 5 may be verified, Licensee shall keep complete and accurate books and records and shall keep such books and records available for inspection for a period of 5 years following the sale or other disposal of each Video CD Player.

Philips shall have the right to inspect the books and records of Licensee from time to time, in order to verify the correctness of the aforementioned Royalty Reporting Forms. Any such inspection shall take place no more than once per calendar year and shall be conducted by a certified public auditor appointed by Philips. Philips shall give Licensee written notice of such inspection at least 7 days prior to the inspection. Licensee shall willingly co-operate and provide all such assistance in connection with such inspection as Philips and/or the auditor may require. The inspection shall be conducted at Philips' own expense, provided that in the event that Licensee has failed to submit Royalty Reporting Forms and/or yearly written statement(s) by its external auditors, as provided for in Clause 5.4 and Clause 5.6, in respect of the period to which the inspection relates or in the event that any discrepancy or error exceeding 3% (three per cent) of the monies actually due is established, in addition to Licensee's obligation promptly to make up for such underpayment, the cost of the inspection shall be borne by Licensee, without prejudice to any other claim or remedy as Philips may have under this Agreement or under applicable law.

Philips' right of inspection as set out in this Clause 5.11 shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

- 5.12 Without prejudice to the provisions of Clause 5.11, Licensee shall provide all relevant additional information as Philips may reasonably request from time to time, so as to enable Philips to ascertain which products manufactured, sold or otherwise disposed of by Licensee are subject to the payment of royalties to Philips hereunder, the patents which have been used in connection with such products, and the amount of royalties payable.
- 5.13 As a condition precedent to the entry into force of this Agreement, Licensee shall submit to Philips a written royalty reporting statement in respect of Video CD Players manufactured and sold or otherwise disposed of by Licensee before the Effective Date (as hereinafter defined) of this Agreement in accordance with the provisions of Clause 5.4.

Within 7 days following the execution of this Agreement, Licensee shall pay to Philips the royalties for such Video CD Players, calculated by applying the royalty rates of:

- (a) 2.5% (two and a half per cent) of the Net Selling Price (as hereinafter defined) of each Video CD Player or US$ 5.00 (five US Dollars), whichever amount is higher, for each Video CD Player sold before July 1, 2003; and
- (b) US$ 1.25 (one US Dollar and twenty-five US Dollar cents) for each Video CD Player sold on or after July 1, 2003.

The written royalty reporting statement shall similarly be subject to Philips' right of audit as set out in Clause 5.11. Within 45 days following the execution of this Agreement, Licensee shall submit to Philips an audit statement by its external auditors, who shall be certified public auditors, confirming that this written royalty reporting statement is true, complete and accurate in every respect. Such statement must meet the requirements as specified in the Audit Guidelines.

6. Most Favourable Rate

- 6.1 In the event that licenses under the patents referred to in Clause 2 are granted by Philips for Video CD Players to a third party under substantially similar conditions, but at a royalty rate more favourable than the rate payable by Licensee under this Agreement, Licensee shall be entitled to the same royalty rate as applicable to such third party, provided always that this right of Licensee shall not apply in respect of cross-license agreements or other agreements providing for a consideration which is not exclusively based on the payment of royalties and further provided that this right of Licensee shall not apply in respect of licenses or other arrangements made pursuant to a court decision or the settlement of a dispute between Philips and a third party, irrespective of the nature of such dispute, the terms of the court decision or the settlement terms.

7. No Warranty and Indemnification

- 7.1 Whereas Philips has made efforts to ensure that the information to be supplied by it hereunder is complete and accurate, Philips makes no representation or warranty as to the completeness or accuracy of such information, nor with respect to the ability of Licensee to achieve interchangeability with respect to Video CD Players through the use of such information.
- 7.2 It is acknowledged by Licensee that third parties may own industrial and/or intellectual property rights in the field of Video CD Players. Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom and IRT make no warranty whatsoever that the manufacture, sale or other disposal of Video CD Players or the use of information supplied by Philips hereunder, does not infringe or will not cause infringement of any industrial and/or intellectual property rights other than the Licensed Patents. Philips, Sony, MEI, JVC, France Télécom, IRT and their respective Associated Companies shall be fully indemnified and held harmless by Licensee from and against any and all third party claims in connection with Video CD Players manufactured, sold or otherwise disposed of by Licensee.

8. Confidentiality
